

Michael E. Simons
BEGS 6250: Bible Survey for Educators
A Theology of Integrity: Course Objectives

- I. Intended audience
 - A. Adults of all ages
 - B. College age students
 - C. High School students: grades 9-12
 - D. Middle School students: grades 6- 8

- II. Style to be Taught
 - A. Intended to be interactive in any class
 - 1. Teacher may use teaching guide as a stand-alone
 - 2. Teacher may use teaching guide with PowerPoint presentation
 - B. Students may look up verses in class
 - C. Individuals may use private Bible study with teacher's guide and refer to indicated verses

- III. Follow up Method
 - A. Discussion in class after a portion has been completed
 - B. Meditation is strongly encouraged
 - 1. Seeks God's mind concerning where the student needs to make changes
 - 2. Make changes where needed
 - 3. Seek an accountability partner
 - C. Look for more verses in other part of the Bible as a self-study regarding integrity